

MOXI provide competency development, mapping & assessment to the oil and gas, mining, mineral processing and infrastructure industries worldwide.

HAVE YOU GOT *MOXI?

CALLING ALL TRAINERS...

If you like the idea of being a consultative, relationship-building professional, and would like to work in the world of training and development, then read on. We are looking for people to join our exciting team who have *MOXI (initiative, drive and energy) to achieve the challenges we have set and to be a MOXI Instructor.

MOXI is seeking talented, self motivated individuals to provide TECHNICAL training and consulting solutions to organisations across Australia. MOXI is continually looking for the best instructors who have a real drive to ensure our clients receive the highest quality training in areas of Electrical Equipment in Hazardous Areas.

As an instructor you will have the following qualifications, competency and experience to ensure that the highest quality training materials are delivered with pride and care:

- BE or Trade Qualification
- Relevant industry experience, min 5 years preferably in Oil & Gas or Mining
- Cert IV or higher in Workplace Training and Assessment
- Relevant Certified Competency in Electrical Equipment in Hazardous Areas
- And / or Approved Certification in Electrical Discipline, applicable to Advanced Diploma

Ideally based in Perth and assisting with the development of MOXI's presence there, the position will require a reasonable amount of travel to any location in Australia and where the needs arise, internationally. As one of the most established training companies in Australia and an RTO, MOXI has been providing leading training and consulting solutions to organisations across Australia and internationally. MOXI has built a reputation as a provider of quality, nationally recognised training and training management services with a flexible "can do attitude". It goes without saying that we are only interested in honesty, integrity and professionalism.

It's not every day you get the chance to join a business which is going places. Our training is now in such demand; we need a new team member to look after our existing valued clients and to ensure that our client base continues to grow.

If you think you are good enough to join our team, send your CV to:

angie.askew@moxi.com.au or

Operations Manager, MOXI / Skill + Learning, PO Box 519, West Perth WA 6872

Go to www.moxi.com.au for further information on MOXI / Skill + Learning.

SKILL + LEARNING

MOXI

www.moxi.com.au