

e-Learning Electrical Equipment for Hazardous Areas Refresher

Target Audience

This course is aimed at technicians and engineers who have completed training in relation to Installation, Maintenance and Design of electrical equipment in hazardous areas.

Objective:

The objective of the course is to provide enhanced revision and update of recent changes in Standards and Regulations and their application to hazardous areas.

Course Content:

- EEHA principles
- HA Classification - basics
- Protection techniques
- Ex Certification
- Competency
- Changes in Standards

Course Length:

Approximately 4 hours. This course is self-paced. Participants can go into and out of the course as many times as they wish until such time the course is completed.

Outcome:

A Certificate of Completion will be issued together with a Handbook that supports the information covered during the course.

For further information or customised training, call MOXI on 1300 668 992.
www.moxi.com.au

moxi
SKILL + LEARNING

reducing risk / demonstrating competence / training management